

We are thrilled to commemorate 150 years in our Chapel this summer

Please join us as we celebrate on
Sat., August 8th • 10am - 2pm

History walks, 10am - 1pm • Hear fascinating stories of...

- the founding of the chapel, a who's who of famous Rye names.
  - the lychgate and how does it tie to funeral rites?
  - the beautiful stained-glass windows. Learn which are crafted by Tiffany, which are by LaFarge (of Trinity Church, Copley Square, Boston fame) and where the nod to poet Ogden Nash, the chapel's secretary for 25 years, is hiding.
  - the architecture, famous visitors, and plenty more.
- Take your picture in a replica Concord Coach on loan from the Abbott-Downing Historical Society.
- Grab lunch from the Llano & Rye food truck featuring Texas style, Live Fire Barbecue. Available for purchase.
- The Portsmouth Brass Quintet, 1pm
Playing a program of Americana featuring marches, rags, show tunes, and early songs.
Perfect music for our 150th celebration!

All are welcome to this free event!
